DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 3/23/04 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 37-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barber (US 4,701,363) in view of Seo et al (US 5,757,069).

Barber discloses in Fig. 7 of etching to form depressions 25 on leads. Fig. 9 shows the first portion 43 is planar but the planar surface does not completely across the first portion to join the side walls.

Seo discloses in Fig. 2 etching 12 form a planar surface 15 completely across to join the side walls.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Barber by etching the lead to form a planar surface completely across to join the side walls, as taught by Seo, for the purpose of eliminating the height difference and uniformly distribute the pressing force during bonding process.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 37-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

5. Applicants are duly reminded that a full and proper response to this Office Action that includes any amendment to the claims and specification of the application as originally filed requires that the applicant point out the support for any amendment made to the disclosure, including the claims. See 37 CFR 1.111 and MPEP 2163.06.
